TUESDAY EVENING, JANUARY 20.

JOB PRINTING.

A BRILLIANT ASSEMBLAGE.—The dancing hall of the Masonic Temple was crowded last night, says the Norfolk Virginian, with the most brilliant assemblage of ladies and gentlemen that we have beheld in Norfolk for many years. It was the occasion of a German given by the "Norfolk German Club" in honor of the Grand Duke Alexis.

At 10 o'clock the Grand Duke and his staff entered the room, and were formally introduced by Capt. B. P. Loyall, a few minutes of pleasant conversation. After a few minutes of pleasant conversation, the dancers and partners took their places. (Our Russian friends do not dance the German.) The following couples formed the "Royal Set."

Mrs. James Y. Leigh and the Grand Duke Alexis.
Prince Obolinski (Lieutenant and Aide to the Grand Duke) and Miss Hattie Parks.
Lieutenant Commander Shaw (U. S. Navy) and Miss Emma Williamson, of Portsmouth.
Lieutenant Russell (U. S. N.) and Miss Bettie Walke.

After this set was danced, His Imperial Highness, the Grand Duke, promenade the room, and was presented to a large majority of the members of the club. He entered into the fun and spirit of the occasion with a pleasing familiarity, and became a general favorite. Admiral Boutakoff and Baron Schilling did not participate in the dance, but made themselves very agreeable to the lady visitors present.

The other officers of the flagship shared in the festivities and greatly enjoyed themselves.

We respectfully call the attention of our customers and the public generally to the fact that we are always prepared to execute all kinds of

ENCOURAGE HOME MANUFACTURE I am now manufacturing a good and cheap PAINT, of several colors, the body of which is equal to Lead and Oil, which for tin roofs, barns, stables, fences, &c., will be found very suitable as well as economical, and an improvement over other cheap mixed Paints now in the market. For brick walls with a northern exposure it will set as a protective to dampness, impervious to moisture and a preventive of rust. Being of various shades of color, the cornice and trimmings can be painted to suit. This Paint has been used by one railroad company and by many of the farmers in this vicinity, and is highly recommended by all who have tried it. Price, single gallon, 75c. 10 gallons 65c. per gal. 1 bbl., or 40 gallons, 60c. per gal. Call and examine samples at 85 King St., under Sarepta Hall.
